Alma Mater

William Carey, we will love thee,
Loyal we will be;
And we sing thy praises;
Hail, all hail to thee.
Lifting high the light of knowledge,
Answering the clarion call.
Thou hast made thy sons and daughters,
Staunch crusaders all.
Thou has taught us love and honor,
Taught us truth and right.
While fitting every new crusader,
With thine armor bright.
May the God, who made thee worthy,
Keep the every truthly free;
May His spirit, Alma Mater,
Ever dwell with thee.

Dr. Tommy King

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

To the class of 2016:

Congratulations on the completion of your academic goal. You will now be focused on establishing or advancing your career or continuing your education. The entire class will be in our thoughts and prayers as you strive to achieve your goals.

The theme for this year has been "Going the Second Mile" and I have seen so many examples of students who have gone beyond expectations in academics, athletics, the arts and in spiritual growth. You will look back on the year with fond memories and pride in your accomplishments.

We work very hard to provide a quality education at a reasonable cost. We have received a perfect financial responsibility score from the U. S. Department of Education for the seventh consecutive year. In addition, Carey is a top tier institution and has received the "Best Value in the South" ranking from U. S. News and World Report for the third year. Numerous other accolades have come our way from other organizations. As the reputation of the institution increases the value of your diploma increases.

One of the factors in the U. S. News ranking is financial support from alumni. Even a small gift allows us to count you in this report. If you are able to do so I hope that you will send whatever amount of support that you can. This will help us to keep our high ratings.

Stay in touch and come by for a visit when you are in the area. Keep the alumni office informed of developments in your life and your career.

God bless.

Church Basement Ladies
June 24, 2015

The first show was "Church Basement Ladies," a musical comedy by Jim Stowell and Jessica Zuehlke with music and lyrics by Drew Jansen. The story takes place in the heart and soul of the church, the basement kitchen, where several ladies cook meals and perform other tasks for the congregation. In the funny, down-to-earth comedy, the ladies handle a traditional Norwegian fish dinner, a funeral and a fundraiser while starving off potential disasters, having fun, sharing and debating recipes, instructing the young and keeping the pastor on course. The show features original songs including "Closer to Heaven," "The Pale Food Polka" and "Mother of the Bride." The show runs June 11-27.

Beehive
July 15, 2015

Written by Larry Gallagher, "Beehive" takes the audience on a chronological journey through the decade, from its beehive hairdos to its hippie fashions and beyond. Along the way the audience is treated to 40 of the decade's most memorable songs including "My Boyfriend's Back," "Will You Still Love Me Tomorrow," "Natural Woman," "Proud Mary," "Me and Bobby Magee," "Where the Boys Are" and "Make Your Own Kind of Music." The show runs July 7-18

QUALITY OF LIFE PROGRAM AT CDT
JULY 15, 2015

The William Carey University Quality of Life (QOL) Project is a program that pairs students with adults with intellectual developmental disabilities to engage in activities designed to enrich their lives. This past year the group visited Memphis, Tennessee to see the National Civil Rights Museum and tour Graceland. The QLP also attended the Carey Dinner Theatre production of "Beehive".

50 year Integration Celebration
September 2, 2015

William Carey University celebrated the 50th anniversary of its integration with activities in September. Events included a chapel service with guest speaker Dr. Joseph Byrd, vice president of student services at Xavier University; music by Dr. Leo Day and Sparkle Polk, an art exhibit, worship service and resolution by the City of Hattiesburg. A garden was dedicated on the Hattiesburg campus in recognition of Vermester Jackson Bester and Linda Williams Cross, the first African-American students at Carey. The two Rowan High School graduates enrolled at Carey in August 1965. Carey voluntarily integrated on February 4, 1965, when the board of trustees unanimously approved the recommendation of then-President Ralph Noonkester to sign the civil rights compliance document with the U.S. Office of Education. This action made Carey the first college in Mississippi and the first Baptist college in the Deep South to voluntarily admit African-American students.

Annie Get Your Gun
October 15, 2015

The Winters School of Music and Ministry presented Irving Berlin's "Annie Get Your Gun" in October. Based on the life of Annie Oakley (1860-1926), a sharpshooter who starred in Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show, the musical details her romance and competition with fellow sharpshooter Frank Butler, her career in Buffalo Bill's show and her involvement with the Sioux tribe and Sitting Bull, its chief. "There's No Business Like Show Business" and "Anything You Can Do" are examples of songs featured in the musical.

"The Thread"

In "The Princess and the Goblin," a children's book by George MacDonald, a princess is given a magic ball of thread. When she is in trouble, she can follow the thread with her finger. The path it takes does not always make sense, but in the end, it leads her exactly where she needs to go. This installation piece is a reminder that unexpected or unconventional paths can lead to the right place.

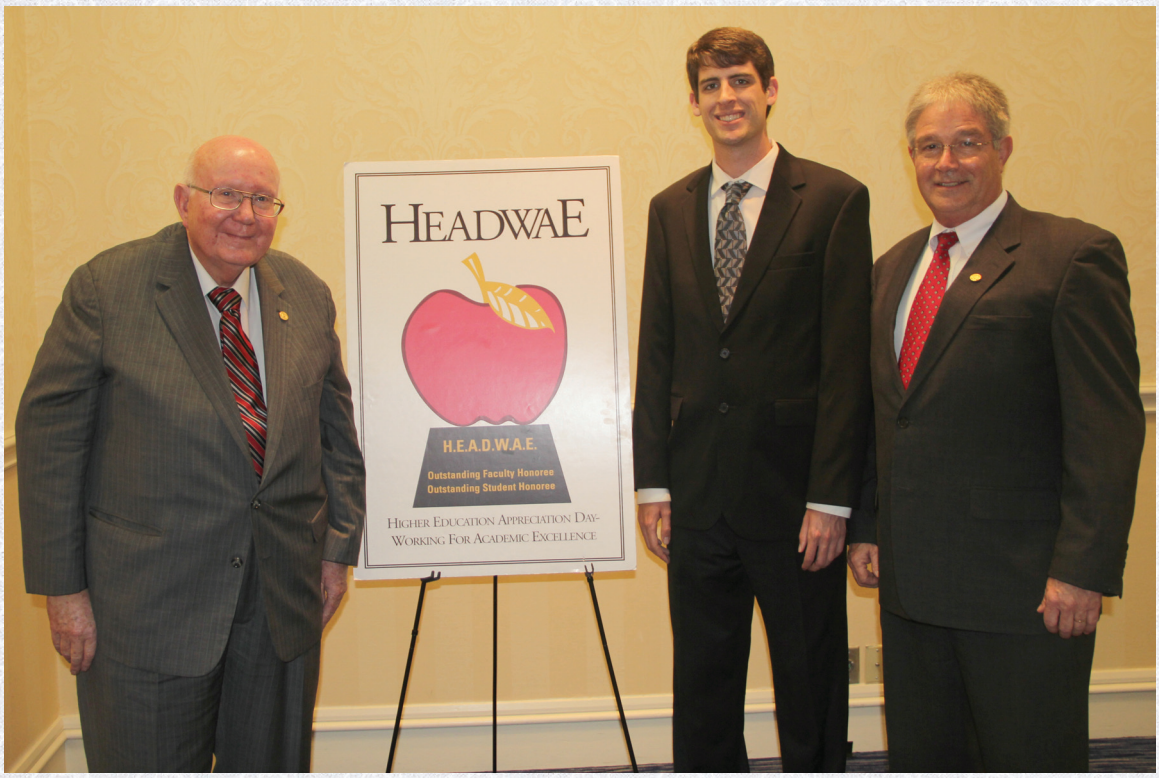
NATIONAL FINALIST

Ben Salters of Ocean Springs, a senior music performance major at William Carey University, recently won the Governors' Award given by the Mississippi chapter of the National Association of Teachers of Singing. Salters also won the top prize in his division, senior men, during the chapter's annual meeting at the University of Southern Mississippi from March 20-21.

During the competition, Salters performed an aria from "The Barber of Seville" by Gioachino Rossini. He was accompanied by Brian Murphy, an adjunct instructor of piano at Carey, and was under the direction of Dr. Connie Roberts, professor of music.

In addition to his studies, Salters is also involved with the Winters School of Music and Ministry's onstage productions, including the recent performance of "The Magic Flute." Salters is a theatre minor and has also been active in Carey Theatre's regular theatre schedule as well as Carey Dinner Theatre in the summer.

HEADWAE



Dr. Daniel Browning Jr., a professor of religion, and Eric Warren, a senior from Mobile, Alabama, were recently honored as the William Carey University HEADWAE faculty and student honorees. An acronym for Higher Education Appreciation Day, Working for Academic Excellence, HEADWAE was established by the Mississippi Legislature in 1987 to honor individuals on campuses who have made outstanding contributions in promoting academic excellence. Browning and Warren were among faculty members and students from 34 Mississippi public and private institutions recognized by the Mississippi Legislature at the State Capitol in Jackson on Feb. 2. A luncheon was also held for the honorees.

CAREY DINNER THEATER AWARD

WCU'S CAREY DINNER THEATRE WAS AWARDED THE SECOND ANNUAL PINE BELT IMAGE AWARD DURING THE PINE BELT CHAPTER OF THE PUBLIC RELATIONS ASSOCIATION OF MISSISSIPPI'S ANNUAL AWARDS BANQUET IN JANUARY. THE IMAGE AWARD RECOGNIZES AN ORGANIZATION OR INDIVIDUAL FOR AN ACHIEVEMENT IN PUBLIC RELATIONS WHICH SIGNIFICANTLY IMPROVES THE IMAGE OF THE PINE BELT ON A REGIONAL OR NATIONAL SCALE, OR WHICH GREATLY INCREASES THE QUALITY OF LIFE OF A SEGMENT OF THE AREA'S RESIDENTS OR THE REGION AS A WHOLE. CAREY DINNER THEATRE WAS FOUNDED IN 1975 WHEN OBRA QUAVE, THEN-CHAIR OF CAREY'S DEPARTMENT OF THEATRE AND COMMUNICATION, AND OTHER FACULTY AND STAFF MEMBERS WANTED TO GIVE THEIR YOUNG PERFORMERS A PROFESSIONAL AND EDUCATIONALLY SOUND OPPORTUNITY TO EXPRESS THEIR TALENTS IN A UNIQUE FORMAT. THERE WAS ALSO A DESIRE TO OFFER TO THE PUBLIC QUALITY ENTERTAINMENT THAT THE WHOLE FAMILY COULD ENJOY.
